Hi Claire

I'm confused. Based on your email from October 30th (see below) the piece was at the framers and ready to be shipped around the 16th. I already told you I wanted it framed and I was merely waiting for you to send me an invoice for shipping. Can you please let me know what's really going on and when to expect the piece? Thank you.

Boris

Hey Boris –

The framer says she will have everyone's works finished by the end of the week of the 16th. I am waiting to hear back from the consolidated shippers as to when they plan to pick up. They are charting the route and so hopefully in the next week they will be organized with times and prices. I will come back to you ASAP

Have a great weekend –

Hi Claire

I hope you're safe and well. I'm growing a bit concerning with the lack of information or updates about the shipment. Could you reach out to your contacts and find out what's happened? I never heard from them after their initial call verifying address.

Thank you

Piece

Hi Claire

Happy holidays.

I'm sorry to bother you on Christmas Day, but I'm a bit upset, because after all the delays and waiting to finally present my wife with Bisa's amazing 'Daughter Of The Dust' in Christmas, you sent the wrong piece. (See below both my order confirmation and the piece I received) I'm not sure what's going on over there, but this has been one of the most puzzling experiences for me. Please let me know when you can send the piece I ordered. Thank you and all the best to you and yours.

make sure. Were you able to connect with Claire?

She sent an email yesterday saying she'd send the piece once it's picked up from the framers. Weird, because she told me back in November that it had been framed already. Maybe back then she had framed the wrong one. No idea. Doesn't matter. I truly hope that she usually does right by you, because you deserve a gallery that reflects the amazing caliber and quality of work you do. Honestly, she was less than impressive. But I can't wait for your piece. Thank you. 😊

I'm just glad you all are getting this sorted out and thank you for your patience. When you get a chance would you mind sending Claire a note to let her
